

PROGRAM: Doctor of International Economics Program

SLOGAN: Elevate the knowledge

INTRODUCTION:

The aim of the Doctor of International Economics Program is to train students after graduation to gain a high level of knowledge and expertise in theory and application of International Economics, to obtain a solid research methodology, to have an ability of conducting independent and creative research, to develop the new knowledge, principles and laws, to solve new problems in socio-economic sciences, and to guide science research and professional activities.

TRAINING ORGANIZATIONS:

1. Duration:

3 years with participants who hold a master's degree

4 years with participants who hold a full-time bachelor degree

2. Language of Instruction: Vietnamese

3. Tuition fees: 42.000.000 VND per year (adjusted every year according to regulations of the Foreign Trade University)

ENTRANCE CONDITIONS

- Participants who hold a master's degree in relevant majors such as International Economics, Commercial Business, Economic Management from universities.

- Participants who hold a master's degree in related areas of Business Administration, including these majors: Economics, Development Economics, Investment Economics, Business Administration, Accounting – Auditing, Finance - Banking - Insurance.

- In case the candidate does not have a master's degree, the candidate must have a university degree in International Economics, Economics, Development Economics, Investment Economics, Commercial Business, Business Administration, Finance - Banking - Insurance, Accounting – Auditing with excellent grades or higher.

* In addition, the requirements for the exam in foreign languages, articles, ... are specified in the School's Admission Announcement.

LIST OF SUBJECTS IN TRAINING PROGRAMS

- '- Globalization of economy and development (3 credits)
- Economics and Business (3 credits)
- Managerial Economics (3 credits)
- Cost-benefit analysis (3 credits)
- * And 2 of the following optional credits:
  - Tax and tax system (2 credits)
  - International trade and development (2 credits)
  - Trade facilitation (2 credits)
  - Principles of Economic Management (2 credits)
  - Green economy (2 credits)
  - Advanced economic policy analysis (2 credits)
  - Contemporary economic issues (2 credits)
- * Doctoral Thesis (58 credits)

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- Gain the ability to work, study independently, promote the lifelong learning, and guide others in doing research;
- Having sufficient professional capacity, skills and ability of the independent mindsets to work as highly qualified experts in the field of international economics, in ministries, sectors and management agencies of the government and international organizations;
- Highly qualified researchers and lecturers in the field of international economics and international economic relations.